1. This is an application made by the original complainant who is the mother of the victim for withdrawal of the compensation amount of Rs.15,000/- which has been deposited by the accused. Advocate for the accused states that he has no objection for withdrawal of the amount. It is however noticed that the appeal has been admitted. In the circumstances, application is allowed subject to the condition that the compensation amount may be handed over to the present applicant subject to her filing undertaking in the Court to return the amount if and when called upon to do so by the Court. Application stands disposed of.
